

Corporate & Transactions

McGinnis Lochridge represents clients throughout Texas and the United States in evaluating and achieving their legal objectives. Our clients include individuals, private and public companies and non-profits, ranging from emerging businesses to multinational corporations.

We provide transactional and tax advice, assist in structuring and completing major transactions, and consult with clients to resolve major business and ownership issues. We handle a broad range of transactional matters, including equity and debt financings; mergers and acquisitions; private equity transactions; formation of corporations, limited liability companies and partnerships; employee compensation and agreements; and federal and state tax planning, compliance and controversies.

Our collective experience has included:

- Forming new business enterprises by creating corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and other entities under the laws of Texas, Delaware or other states.
- Assisting with the development of new business plans, along with operating agreements and other basic rules for governance and compliance.
